

Diversity is essential. Where there is no diversity in media, there is little independent thought. Since the majority of Americans depend on television or radio for news, it is essential that they hear all aspects from different sources. Please support freedom to hear all sides of an issue by preventing news monopolies. Thank you